

New South Wales

Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Regulation 2006

under the

Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1995

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to replace, with only minor amendments, the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Regulation 2001. That Regulation will be repealed on 1 September 2006 by section 10 (2) of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1989. The amendments include an increase in the amounts of certain fees payable for services provided by the Registrar of Births, Deaths and Marriages (the Registrar).

This Regulation prescribes the following:

- (a) the particulars required to be notified to the Registrar concerning the birth of a child,
- (b) the particulars required to be given to the Registrar for the purpose of having the birth of a child registered,
- (c) the particulars required to be entered in the Register (the Register) kept under the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1995 (the Act) in connection with the registration of adoptions,
- (d) the particulars required to be entered in the Register in connection with the registration of change of name,
- (e) the particulars required to be notified to the Registrar by funeral directors or other persons arranging for the disposal, or removal from the State, of human remains or (in certain circumstances) having custody of human remains,
- (f) the documents that are required to accompany an application for the alteration of the Register to record a change of sex,
- (g) the persons (in addition to those specified in the Act) who may apply for a birth certificate showing the original sex of a person the record of whose sex has been altered under the Act,
- (h) the laws of certain other Australian jurisdictions for the purposes of the definition of interstate recognition certificate in the Act,
- (i) the fees to be paid for services provided by the Registrar under the Act.

This Regulation also contains certain formal and machinery matters.

This Regulation is made under the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1995, including section 62 (the general regulation-making power) and the other sections mentioned in the Regulation.

Clause 6

Information required to be given to Registrar or noted in Register

Part 2

- (k) whether or not the mother or father of the child is of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander origin,
- (l) if either parent of the child was born outside Australia, the period of residence in Australia of that parent.

Note. The notice given for the purposes of section 14 of the Act (called a birth registration statement) must also state the name of the child (see section 21 of the Act).

- (2) For avoidance of doubt, the Registrar is authorised to include in the Register the registrable information about the identity of the child's parents that is required to be provided under subclause (1).

6 Registration of adoptions

For the purposes of section 24 of the Act (How adoptions are registered), the following particulars are required:

- (a) the full name, sex and date and place of birth of the child to whom the record of adoption or discharge relates,
- (b) the full name, maiden family name, occupation and usual place of residence of the adoptive mother of the child,
- (c) the date of birth (or age) and place of birth of the adoptive mother of the child,
- (d) the full name, occupation and usual place of residence of the adoptive father of the child,
- (e) the date of birth (or age) and place of birth of the adoptive father of the child,
- (f) the date and place of marriage of the adoptive parents of the child (if applicable),
- (g) if the adoptive parents have any other children (whether adopted children or not), the given names and date of birth of each of those children (including any deceased children).

7 Registration of deceased person's former intention to adopt

For the purposes of section 24A of the Act (Registration of deceased person's former intention to adopt), the following information is required:

- (a) the full name and last residential address of the deceased person,
- (b) the date and place of death of the deceased person.

8 Registration of change of name

For the purposes of section 31 of the Act (Entries to be made in the Register), the following particulars are required:
