

Complaint form

This form is for making a complaint about a lawyer. The Office of the NSW Legal Services Commissioner (OLSC) receives and deals with complaints about lawyers resident and practising in NSW. We cannot provide legal advice or representation to members of the public, cannot intervene in pending court proceedings and cannot overturn findings or orders made by a Court or Tribunal. If you require legal assistance, please contact LawAccess NSW on 1300 888 529.

OLSC cannot take action to resolve a dispute between you and your lawyer unless you or the lawyer has made a reasonable attempt to resolve the matter and the attempt has been unsuccessful, or it would be unreasonable to expect you to be involved in such an attempt.

Please read the following information before you complete this form.

- We recommend you speak to us before making a formal complaint. Please call us on (02) 9377 1800 or toll free on 1800 242 958.
- Please provide a brief outline of your complaint and describe what it is you believe the lawyer has done wrong eg, overcharged, not followed your instructions, provided poor quality legal services, caused delay. The information you provide on this form will help us to understand your complaint.
- Please attach copies of key documents which relate to your complaint.
- Fill out separate complaint forms if you would like to complain about more than one lawyer.
- We will usually send a copy of your complaint to the lawyer to ask them to respond to the issues in your complaint. Please tell us if you have concerns with this.
- We have several fact sheets that explain how complaints are dealt with which are available on our website at www.olsc.nsw.gov.au. You can also contact us on (02) 9377 1800 or toll free on 1800 242 958 for a hard copy.
- You must sign page 4 of this form in order for us to deal with your complaint.

Please contact us if you have any questions or if you need assistance filling out this form. We can arrange an interpreter for you if you do not speak English.

Complaint about legal costs

Complete this section if you are disputing the legal costs you have been charged by your lawyer. Complaints about legal costs are known as costs disputes.

Our role in dealing with a costs dispute is to try and help you and your lawyer or the law practice resolve the dispute. Generally, we can only deal with a costs dispute if:

- The total bill for legal costs is less than $185,460, or
- The total bill for legal costs equals or is more than $185,460 but the total amount in dispute is less than $18,550. Please call us on (02) 9377 1800 if you wish to discuss these circumstances
- The complaint is made within 60 days of the date of the bill or within 30 days of the date of an itemised bill. In some circumstances, we can deal with a costs dispute outside these time frames if you have lodged your complaint within four months after the 60 or 30 day time limit and you have provided a sufficient reason for the delay in making your complaint. The time limit cannot be extended if the lawyer has issued proceedings to sue you for the unpaid costs. Such proceedings may also prevent us from further dealing with your complaint.

5. Have you received a bill from your lawyer?

- Yes (Please attach copies of the bills that you wish to dispute)
- No (Please ask your lawyer for copies of the bills that you wish to dispute)

6. Please provide details of the bills that you have received from your lawyer. Please attach copies.

Date of bill	Amount	How much have you paid?	Are you disputing this bill?

7. Has the lawyer sued you for unpaid legal costs?

Yes No

If yes, when did the lawyer commence legal proceedings, and in which court?

Please note, generally the Commissioner cannot handle a costs dispute if the lawyer has commenced legal proceedings to recover the unpaid costs.

8. Did you receive a written costs agreement and/or costs disclosure document from the lawyer?

Yes (Please attach a copy) No

Sign and date
